

Connecting Climate & Human Health

FACT: More than 1.9 million people in Ohio have asthma or chronic respiratory disease.

That's 17% of Ohio's total population.

Increasing levels of ozone smog can harm the health of this already vulnerable population,

MAKING IT HARDER

for them to breathe.

