

EARTH DAY April 22, 2015

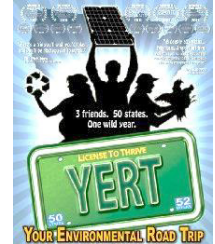

EARTH DAY GREEN FILM FESTIVAL

Wed April 22nd Rehab-201, 2nd Floor
Tampa General Hospital Rehabilitation Center

Continuing Education / $10 WELL Bucks provided

YERT (Your Environmental Road Trip) Three friends pool their collective life-savings, & set off on a first-of-its-kind, 50-state, year-long journey of discovery to personalize sustainability & to answer a critical question: Are we doomed? 113 Minutes 2.0 Contact Hours

Time: 7:30 am & 7:30 pm

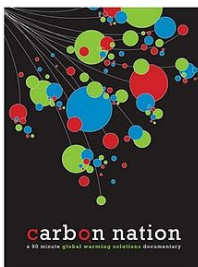

Bag It: Is Your Life Too Plastic? is a 2010 American documentary film exposing the effects of plastic bags & other plastic consumer merchandise, & its effects on land ecosystems, the marine environment & the human body.

78 Minutes 1.0 Contact Hour Time: 3:30 pm & 11:30 pm

Kilowatt Ours explores the connection between an average homeowner's electrical energy use, adverse health & environmental impacts, including mountain top removal coal mining, global warming, & asthma.

56 Minutes 1 Contact Hour Time: 1:30 pm & 10:00 pm

Carbon Nation presents a series of ways in which the 16 terawatts of energy the world consumes can be met while reducing carbon-based sources. Contains optimistic interviews with experts in various fields, business CEOs, & sustainable energy supporters.

86 Minutes 1.5 Contact Hours Time: 10:00 am & 5:00 pm